Additional Information (How did you hear about us? What sorts of rock related endeavors are you interested in? What do you hope to gain from membership in our club? Feel free to answer these questions or provide other information you would like to share.)

By providing your name, address, phone and email here, you are automatically giving permission to pass such on to the Northwest Federation of Mineralogical Societies, of which our club is a member. This becomes part of a yearly directory that can help fellow rockhounds have access to someone in a particular area in the event they are visiting that area or have hobby related questions. Membership in our Federation gives all the benefit of an alliance between all the clubs in existence in the United States.
